Also, Quaker Steak and Lube is planning a Sunday afternoon cruise, details are pretty sketchy at the moment but they are working on it. They plan on parking the classic cars all together, music and more. We'll have to wait and see how it turns out.

- 12 to 15 whole cloves
- 1 can beer
- ¼ c brown sugar
- ½ c orange marmalade

Insert the cloves over the top of the ham. Pour the beer over the top. Rub the brown sugar all over, cover and bake at 325 for 1 ½ hr. Spread the marmalade on top of the ham and bake, uncovered, for 15 to 15 minutes.

Asparagus Stir Fry

- 2 c uncooked instant rice
- 2 c water
- 1 tsp oil
- 3 carrots, sliced
- 1 sml onion, cut in wedges
- 1 lb fresh asparagus, cut in 1" pieces
- 1 (8oz) pkg whole mushrooms, quartered
- 1/3 c water
- 1 tsp grated lemon peel
- ¼ tsp thyme
- ¼ tsp pepper

Cook rice and water as directed. Heat oil and sauté carrots and onion. Add asparagus and mushrooms, cook 4 mins. Stir in remaining ingredients and cook on medium for 2 to 3 mins. Serve over rice.

MEETING MINUTES

The meeting was called to order by President Nick Lombardo at 7:00 PM. The treasurer's report was accepted and the minutes of the previous meeting were approved.

Old Business--Recall--The location of the moving events is still not confirmed. Lew and Nick are working on it. We have 45 bags left from Haggerty from last year's Recall. We still need advertising for our Recall Program. Barb has found a place where we can get 12 pizzas and 2 tubs of salad for $95 for our pizza party. The last meeting before the Recall will be at the Smith house on May 17 at around 11:00 AM.

Our April event which is a tour will be on the 25th. We will be leaving Arby's at 10:00 so if you want to have breakfast there, please arrive early.

New Business: Tim would like someone to do the Fan for a change since he has been doing it for several years. If anyone is up to it, please let him know. Nick will look into putting an ad in the Post Standard for the Recall. Lenny still has tickets for the car raffle at the Corvair Nationals in Jacksonville if anyone is interested.

The meeting was adjourned at 7:32

Respectfully Submitted
Sherry Smith
Secretary

ATTENTION CLUB MEMBERS: We've added a new feature to the club web site. Club members can register, log in and add their comments, thoughts, ideas, hints, etc. to the 'Comments' page.

I'm having fun doing the site - and learning things too.

I would like to have any club members who have pictures from the Recall 2008 that they would like displayed on the site send them to me (either at pjsmith264@windstream.net or jimsmith@cnycorvair.com). I would like to make a page for the pictures. Also, I would like to develop the 'members and their cars' page. If anyone wants to write up something and send pictures, I will put them on the site. Other clubs might be interested in seeing what we have here.

Thank you,
- Jim Smith

Long Live Your Engine By Ron

ZDDP

Ever hear of it? Well, it used to be in the oil you put in your car back in the 80's grade SF or SG. It is an E.P. (extreme pressure) additive, .18% to .20% by weight. It is a combination of zinc and phosphorous. The newest grade of oil, SM, contains only .08% phosphorous. The reason for the reduction is the good old EPA telling the auto manufacturers to increase the life of the catalytic converters and reducing the amount of ZDDP in the oil does just that.

Newer car engines have been redesigned to live with less ZDDP mostly by using roller tappets instead of flat tappets (cam followers) such as Corvairs engines use.

These flat tappets have what they call lifter foot pressure which can be 200 to 400 Lbs depending on cam profile and valve spring pressure. High performance engines have higher foot pressures. The lack of a sufficient amount of ZDDP causes scuffing of the tappet and/or cam lobe, which, if serious enough would cause a skip at idle. There are several ways to get enough ZDDP in your engine.

- 1- find some good SF or SG oil
- 2- use a synthetic oil . Clark's is one source among other.
- 3- Buy a 4 oz bottle of ZDDP from Clark's for $9.60. Good for one oil change.

ZDDP should not be used in OBD (new) cars. ZDDP stand for zinc dialkyl-dithio-phosphate. Now you know why they call it ZDDP.

HI AGAIN

This was another super busy month. Phil's Rampy is coming along nicely...so nice I would be afraid to drive it! Another project for this winter will be ME? changing head gaskets on his 64 Spyder. This project grew rapidly into a long wish list of tweaks and upgrades. So it will be a while before it is back on the road.

The motor I took out of the Lakewood and installed in the Rampy to get us through the tour season worked out well, after fixing the sunken float in the right hand carb that showed up after a couple hundred miles, and the shorted coil that showed up later on. Now it runs great.

Now I have replaced it with a brand new motor tailored more for the truck, and putting that powertrain back in the Lakewood where it belongs. I need to chase a few small details yet before driving it very far. Exasperating oil leaks and that type of stuff. Also I had hoped to install better seat belts and several other options in it.

I also am building a new complete powertrain for the 64 Coupe with factory A/C. of course the biggest part of the job is cleaning /rebuilding and painting parts ~! Now I am so far behind, I may just repair the existing incorrect engine so I can drive it sooner. I have rebuilt / repaired all the lights and e brake parts so far. It also now has those fancy new hands wheels I have always wanted installed.

I will be putting new tires on the rampy. I did not like the looks of them, and remembered it has been almost 20 years since I bought them (when I retired!). Check your tires for signs of dry cracked rubber between treads etc. also look close to the wheel for cracks from stress and dried out rubber.

I hope more of you start taking digital cameras with you to events. I can't be at all of them, so we miss out sometimes. Pictures make the newsletter more interesting and informative! Please do your part to help. Thanks to those that have sent me a few.

I need a few more pages each month to keep up with the progress Kevin, and Phil are making on their projects. Very ambitious stuff!!

Kevin is redesigning his buggy project, and building a new motor for his coupe, Phil Domser is working on parts for his Rampy (almost completed in the body shop!) and the Loadside. Phil and I took a ride to check the progress on it, and the paint work looks like senior division work to me! (I would be afraid to drive something that nice.) Doug and Betsy are still working on paint issues on the van.

Not sure who else is doing whatever out there yet.

Any news out there? Be sure to let me know, so it can be in print.

Jim is still looking for more exciting content for the website. See his note elsewhere in this issue.

A side addition to Ron's note on ZDDP additives, I use a LUCAS oil break in additive (says it has zinc in it!) product available at my local NAPA store. Not cheap, but right here handy. LUCAS Gas additives work very well also.

We sure had some nice Fall tours this year, with weather cooperating on most. It was nice to be able to drive a Corvair this year.

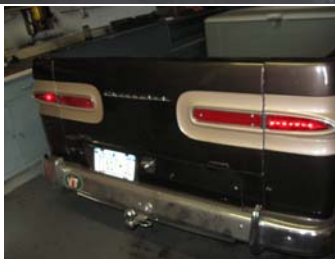

Preparations are progressing for next years RECALL. A few upgrades and changes are in the making. More on this in the next issue.

I think that's it (hope I did not forget to much!!) for this month, I better get back to work... See ya soon!

ANYONE WHO WOULD LIKE TO TAKE OVER THE FAN, PLEASE GET IN TOUCH WITH ME!!
I can help get you set up with software etc.

ONE OF MY DAY PROJECTS LAST MONTH WAS LIGHTING ON THE LAKEWOOD AND A NEW DESIGN FOR BRIGHTER RAMPY TAIL LIGHTS

WE WISH TO THANK ALL THE SPONSORS AND SUPPORTERS OF OUR CLUB AND THE RECALL. WITHOUT THE HELP THEY PROVIDE WE COULD NOT DO IT , PLUS THE WORDS" CORVAIR PARTS AND SERVICES" WOULD BE HISTORY..

50 Years of Corvair Conventions

How time flies: The Chevy Corvair has been with us for nearly half a century. The model made its public debut October 2, 1959, and to celebrate its semicentennial the Corvair Preservation Foundation, the nonprofit affiliate of the Corvair Society of America, is coordinating a yearlong celebration among their worldwide club network.

They're officially starting the celebration at the 2009 CORSA National Convention in Jacksonville, Florida, July 13-17, and will continue it through next summer's convention. Details on the Florida gathering can be found at conventions.corvair.org/2009, while the club's main Web address is corvair.org.
