TIM'S TECH TIME AND RAMBLIN'S

This month has been another busy one. A lot of my time now is taken up going to medical appointments. I try to find time to work in the shop as much as possible. Most of my time now is taken up by medical appointments. I do sneak out to the shop at times , but not able to do much now. I did start the 64 coupe project car up and run it a few minutes after a long rest. It runs so sweet I hope maybe to get paint on it and drive it again. It needs fresher gas soon , in spite of the stabile , it is not that good after all these years. Surprised it runs as good as it does. I have not been able to check out the drip under the Rampy yet. It is slight , but annoying. I have trouble getting up and down for a while yet. I did rebuild some carbs and have 2 left to finish up. All of these were in rough shape , but cleaned up OK. One had a broken cluster screw (head was missing) which was a project to save , but my left hand drill set saved the day. Its all fine now. I think I have rebuilt 8 carbs recently , including a pair of 64 , one year only. Some will go with engine projects waiting on the bench , others may get sold , not sure yet. I try to run and adjust most of them on Rampy. Bending over motors etc is hard for me now , but I still try to keep moving.

I can tell spring is here by the phone calls for Corvair help. Some are people new to Corvairs. My job is to find them help and keeping them from loosing interest in the Corvair. Several hands on hobbies are losing people to keep things alive. Not many want to get their hands dirty anymore?.

Cruise ins and shows are going to start soon , and I would like to attend a few. One weekly Tuesday event is not far from where I stay at times , over at Clay town park. I did send in my registration to the Waterloo Wheels on Main Street Memorial Day show. I plan on Recall. I Hope to be at Fairhaven 4th of July show , and of course the Jordan Fall festival. My new to me problem is getting up early enough in the morning to be at shows and hamfests.

I am planning on scanning pages from our past cookbook project to use on Rita's Kitchen corner page. It turned into more of a project than planned because several are partially on 2 pages.

Remember to thank our Corvair vendors including Clark's and others for working on needed parts repros etc to help keep our hobby alive.

I will have to start trying to sell off some of the motors that are apart waiting to be rebuilt here , along with other hard parts. I found a rebuilt? And another Powerglide out in storage. I just do not think I can get much more of my own things done now. Build your own motors , hardest part is cleaning parts...

Dreaming up things for the fan and remembering them long enough to use them is a chore. I am still finding files from the past , including pictures to help trigger memories and Ideas.

Looking forward to another nice meal and meeting coming up May 2nd.

Recall 2024 planning is progressing nicely. I am glad to see it still going after all these years. It is not easy to do. Thanks to all involved.

That's it for now From Tim in Memphis (NY).
